Course Description

This course introduces the student to the many resources available on the Internet. Students will use the Internet and World Wide Web resources to communicate, collaborate and retrieve information. The course will also cover simple web page development using a variety of web editing tools.

Student Learning Outcomes (Course Level)

Upon successful completion of this course, students will be able to:

1. Use the Internet to communicate, collaborate and retrieve information.
2. Identify positive social and ethical behaviors when using technology and the consequences of misuse.
3. Plan, design and publish a Web site.

Performance Criteria and Evaluation

Each student is expected to:

1. Attend class regularly and promptly.

2. Read material and be prepared to participate in class discussions. Inform instructor of any absence via e-mail.

3. Complete all Lab Assignments and Case Problems by the due date. Send me an Email if you need more time to complete.

4. Complete all Tutorial Quizzes and the Final Exam as scheduled. If you need to reschedule, send me an Email before class.

5. Complete a Final Web Page Project by the due date.

Disclaimer: The instructor reserves the right to make changes in the syllabus and the course outline. The instructor will immediately notify the students of such changes both by email and announcement.

Performance Assessment:

Each student is responsible for reviewing their progress periodically on Gradesource. Any errors should be brought to my attention immediately by sending an email with the error in question.

Lab Assignments, Case Problems, Tutorial Quizzes, Final Exam, and a Web Page Project are assigned points and will be counted towards the final grade and distributed as follows:

Assessment:		Grading Scale:	Letter Grade

Policies & Additional Information:

- Make-up Policy: Students who are absent from class are responsible for the course material they missed.

  - Late submission of Lab Assignments and Case Problems is discouraged and a 10% penalty will be deducted unless other arrangements are communicated with instructor prior to the due date. Students are allowed to make up Lab Assignments and Case Problems missed within two (2) class meeting days, otherwise no points will be awarded

  - NO make-up of Quizzes or the Final Exam will be allowed unless other arrangements are communicated with instructor prior to the absence. If you need to reschedule, send me an Email before class. With prior notification, students are allowed to make up the Quizzes missed within two (2) class meeting days, otherwise no points will be awarded

- FERPA and Privacy: Under FERPA (Family Educational Rights and Privacy Act), your educational records are confidential and protected. Under most circumstances, your records will not be released without your written and signed consent. However, some directory information may be released to third parties without your prior consent unless a written request to restrict this is on file. You can learn more about student rights to privacy at the GCC online college catalog in Appendix H (http://catalog.guamcc.edu), or by visiting the U.S. Department of Education website, (http://www2.ed.gov/policy/gen/guid/fpco/ferpa/index.html), or accessing the FERPA Group on MyGCC which is open to all users.

Disclaimer: The instructor reserves the right to make changes in the syllabus and the course outline. The instructor will immediately notify the students of such changes both by email and announcement.

- Reasonable Accommodations: Individuals with disabilities seeking academic accommodations shall notify the Office of Accommodative Services (OAS) and provide the necessary documentation of the disability. Students may contact OAS at 735-5597 or visit in room 2139 in the Student Services and Administration Building.

- Academic Integrity: Academic integrity is fundamental to learning and is consistent with the Institutional Learning Outcomes (ILOs) espoused at Guam Community College. The concept of academic integrity lies at the very heart of any college, and learning and scholarship cannot thrive without this fundamental value. Therefore, academic dishonesty cannot be tolerated. Students who commit such acts expose themselves to sanctions as severe as expulsion from the College.

  Academic dishonesty can take different forms, including, but not limited to: cheating, plagiarism, and technology misuse and abuse. In any situation in which students are unsure of what constitutes academic dishonesty, it is the students' responsibility to raise the question with their instructor. It is also the students' responsibility to be familiar with the student guidelines on Academic Integrity.

  Additional information and definitions may be found on the Academic Integrity section of the 2013 - 2014 e-catalog.

- Emergency Policy: In the event classes are canceled as a result of a power outage, water outage, bomb scare, typhoon, other natural disasters or circumstances beyond my control, all classes missed will be made up by: (1) extending the class meeting time an additional 15-20 minutes or (2) scheduling the class on another day such as a Friday or Saturday until the student learning outcomes are met.

- Classroom Etiquette/Policy: No food or drinks in the classroom. Cell phones must be turned off or in silent mode. Do not answer your cell phone in the classroom, please leave the room and then answer the call. NO viewing of inappropriate Internet material, excessive electronic socializing or downloading large files.

- Zero Tolerance: GCC has zero tolerance for harassment and violence in the workplace and will not ignore, condone or tolerate disruptive, threatening or violent behavior by any member of the GCC community or by visitors.
