The run-off election for the mayor of Lancaster is scheduled for September 31st. The Chamber of Commerce is encouraging each registered voter to go to the polls and participate in one of our most valuable rights—the right to vote.

Please make your plans now to vote between 7 a.m. and 7 p.m. I also urge you to use your influence to encourage your friends, neighbors, and fellow workers to vote. Following are the precinct voting locations:

1. G. W. Carter Elementary School

Your individual involvement in this election can affect your future as well as the future of Lancaster. Thanks for your participation.
