INSTRUCTIONS: - Read the statements below and perform the tasks.

1. Create a HTML document, save as: functionexamavg.html

2. Add a heading element Calculate Exam Average.

3. Add a paragraph element .

4. Write a <script> to:
    a. Declare 2 variables exam1 and exam2 and assign an exam score to each variable.

5. Create a function called examAvg(Pass in exam1 and exam2 as parameters).

6. In the function:

    a. Calculate the average of exam1 and exam2

    b. return your answer.

7. Call your function in a document.getElementById("avg").innerHTML = "Exam Average is:" Call your function here (pass your parameters)