

In- Class Exercise – JS Array Methods

INSTRUCTIONS: - Read the statements below and perform the tasks.

1. Create a HTML document, save as: array2.html
2. Add a heading element Array Methods.
3. Add a paragraph element ``
4. Write a `<script>` to:
 - a. Create a styles array with items "Jazz", "Blues", and "Pop"
styles = [see above]
5. For each of the following, display in a document.getElementById
 - a. Display the entire array in the "music1" HTML element.
 - b. Strip off the last value of the array then display the array in the "music2" HTML element.
 - c. Append "Rock-n-Roll" to the end of the array then display the array in the "music3" HTML element.
 - d. Strip off the first value of the array and then display the array in the "music4" HTML element.
 - e. Add "Reggae" to the beginning to the array and then display the array in the "music5" element.
 - f. Sort the array alphabetically and then display the array in the "music6" element.