

In- Class Exercise – JS Array

INSTRUCTIONS: - Read the statements below and perform the tasks.

1. Create a HTML document, save as: array1.html
2. Add a heading element Array Exercise.
3. Add a paragraph element  and
4. Write a <script> to:
 - a. Create a nums array with 10 numbers in the array.
nums = [fill this array with 10 numbers]
 - b. Create an employees array with 5 names in the array.
employees = [fill this array with 5 names]
5. Display in a document.getElement
 - a. Display the entire array in the "num1" HTML element.
 - b. Display the first element in the nums [array] in the "num2" HTML element.
 - c. Display the last element in the nums [array] in the "num3" HTML element.
 - d. Display the 5th element in the nums [array] in the "num4" HTML element.
 - e. Display the entire array in the "emp1" HTML element.
 - f. Display the 2nd element in the employee [array] in the "emp2" HTML element.
 - g. Display the last element in the employee [array] in the "emp3" HTML element.
 - h. Display the 4th element in the employee [array] in the "emp4" HTML element.