

In- Class Exercise – JS Function (Exam Average)

INSTRUCTIONS: - Read the statements below and perform the tasks.

1. Create a HTML document, save as: function1.html
2. Add a heading element Exam Average.
3. Add a paragraph element .
4. Write a <script> to:
 - a. Create 2 variables and name it exam1 and exam2.
 - b. Assign an exam score number in your exam1 and exam2 variable.
5. Create a function called examAvg(Pass in exam1 and exam2 as parameters).
6. In the function:
 - a. Calculate the average of exam1 and exam2 and return your answer.
7. Call your function in document.getElementById("avg").innerHTML statement and display as below:

Exam Average is: _____