SUBJECT: Program to program articulation

RECEIVED
UNIVERSITY OF GUAM

ACADEMIC AND
STUDENT AFFAIRS

Largely because of your collaborative perspective, the articulation agreements we have forged (in Gen Ed and non-Gen Ed courses) have propelled us to new heights, insofar as the UOG-GCC institutional relationship is concerned. These partnership agreements have in fact directly benefitted our respective student populations. Can we now move beyond our course-to-course articulation agreements and get to the next level of articulation partnership?

Based on the results of our discussion on 14 January 2011 at your office, this is to formalize my request for program to program articulation, as detailed in the table below:

UOG POC

GCC Program	UOG Program	Faculty/Dean Responsible
Associate of Arts in Liberal Studies	Bachelor of Arts in Interdisciplinary Arts & Sciences	Dr. Lisa Baza-Cruz Dr. Michelle Santos
Associate of Arts in Education	Bachelor of Arts in Education	Dr. Clare Camacho Reilly Ridgell
Associate of Science in Criminal Justice	Bachelor of Science in Criminal Justice	Jose Munoz Reilly Ridgell

Dr. James Sellman
Dr. Patrick Leddy
Dr. Anita Enrriquez

Similarly, please designate specific individuals at the university (e.g. deans, faculty) to handle these requests so that our contact persons can touch base with them. As we agreed in our meeting, it is always best to begin these discussions at the Deans' level.

The pertinent documents relevant to these requests (to include program and course guides, etc.) are forthcoming. Once we have completed assembling these documents, we will send them to you in packets. We hope that these documents will help your faculty review and evaluate these requests.

I would appreciate receiving a letter from your office to signal the beginning of these discussions.

Thank you.

Sincerely,

A handwritten signature in black ink, appearing to read 'R. Somera', written over the word 'Sincerely,'.
