Workshop Topics for October 15, 2010

PLANNING AHEAD – Want to get your Associates Degree and then go on for your Bachelor's? Need to get a job and earn extra money? Learn how setting your goals can help you plan ahead for success!

GETTING GOOD GRADES – Need to get good grades to keep your scholarship or grant, finish school, or graduate on time? Follow the simple tips in this workshop to ensure your academic success!

NEED TO GIVE A PRESENTATION IN CLASS? – Just got the syllabus for one of your classes and there's a part where you have to make a presentation, ALL BY YOURSELF?! Don't worry, in this workshop you can learn the presentation skills you need for the classroom and the work place.

WRITING TO SURVIVE AND THRIVE! – Tired of sending in resumes with no response from employers? Think you don't have enough experience to get a job? Learn how properly writing your resume will get you the results you need, first the job interview, and then the job!

THINGS YOU SHOULD NEVER DO AT WORK! – There are certain work ethics in every job. Find out how knowing what NOT to do affects your references for future employment.

RELAX! DON'T SWEAT THE SMALL STUFF! – If you've been pulling out your hair because you're stressed out and now, there's no more hair, this is your workshop! Learn to manage the stress of family, school and your personal life.

I'M NOT CRAZY, I'M JUST NOT YOU!! – Ever wonder why some people drive you crazy and why it is so much easier to get along with others? This workshop will help you learn more about your personality type and how you can apply this knowledge within your career, education, and personal life!

FLIPPING A COIN JUST WON'T WORK! – What do I want to major in? Should I get a part-time job? Do I want to go to this workshop? Having trouble deciding? This is your workshop to learn steps to easy decision making.
