President's Message

One of the central tenets of Guam Community College's mission is to provide programs that respond to the needs of our community. Two critical questions we ask are:

What are employers and industries in Guam and the region looking for?

What kind of employees do they want to hire?

Advisory Committees can be an effective mechanism for ensuring that the College accurately answers these questions.

Advisory Committees are designed to provide a unique perspective and an informed viewpoint, ensuring that the curriculum remains relevant to business and industry needs. These committees should serve as a critical link between GCC, the community, and the Pacific region. Close cooperation is made possible as business, industry, and labor representatives have a vested interest in helping GCC to provide accurate and innovative education and skills training, and in ultimately, helping students to succeed. Overall, Advisory Committees are not only critical in the successful implementation of career and technical programs, but they also play a vital role in guiding, strengthening, and improving these programs.

The expertise that members of various career and technical fields can provide our students will enable them to be prepared to meet the challenges of their chosen careers. These industry partnerships are the college's reassurance to the community that our graduates will be capable of performing competitively in our dynamic job market. Such input also provides a better understanding for faculty and staff of the needs of the occupations for which we prepare our students.

The Guam Community College Board of Trustees, the college staff and I appreciate the valuable service these Advisory Committees can provide. We encourage you to partner with us as a member of a GCC Advisory Committee, and we thank you for the time and dedication invested in our students and our community.

Purpose

The Advisory Committee serves to strengthen the Career and Technical (CTE) programs. They are advisory and have no legislative, administrative, or programmatic authority. The committees work cooperatively with college officials in planning and carrying out their work. An Advisory Committee is established to perform the following:

- Advise - The Advisory Committee assesses specific areas of the CTE program. Recommendations made by the committee are designed to improve particular content areas;
- Assist - The Advisory Committee may help instructors and/or administrators carry out specific activities;
- Support - The Advisory Committee provides support for the CTE program it serves;
- Advocate - The Advisory Committee promotes the CTE programs throughout the community.

Role

The primary purpose of the Advisory Committee is to help the College ensure that the program is relevant to the community, address current industry standards and workforce needs, and has appropriate resources to support high quality student outcomes.

Individuals who comprise the committee are volunteers who have expert knowledge and experience in the career tasks and competency requirements in the occupational field the program serves. To be effective, members should have a clear sense of trends in the field. They moreover, should be able to identify skills that will ensure employability of the program's graduates, and be able to identify jobs that don't exist but are likely to in the near future. Having this ability ensures that the program is kept on the cutting edge. Thus, the role of the committee is to offer recommendations for improvements that will ensure growth and expansion of the program. It accomplishes this purpose by placing its focus on a number of areas as outlined below .

Program Development

- Provide input to and be knowledgeable of the College's Strategic Plan.
- Determine need for education programs and related continuing education offerings.
- Participate in designing community and/or employer surveys and analysis.
- Recommend appropriate new program development.
- Provide guidance on program delivery.

Program Curriculum

- Identify occupational competencies needed by the workforce.
- Recommend student proficiency standards.
- Review course content, sequencing, assessments, and validation of content.
- Recommend equipment purchases and facility changes.
- Identify new and emerging technologies and jobs.

Student Recruitment, Retention, and Placement

- Recommend program marketing strategies to recruit students.
- Facilitate fieldtrips, internships, and work experience opportunities for students.
- Monitor program placement data.
- Develop resources for scholarships.
- Review student service functions and programs and recommend possible changes and enhancements to these services.
- Assist graduates in the attainment of permanent employment in areas that reflect their educational and occupational backgrounds.

Program Evaluation

- Identify future environmental and industry trends impacting the program.
- Provide concrete recommendations for improvement.
- Monitor annual progress of program improvement plans.

Public Information

- Stimulate public awareness of career and workforce education needs and contributions.
- Participate in public hearings and other legislative activities that impact the program and College.
- Recommend strategies for forging a stronger relationship between the College and the community.
- Promote and advocate for the program in the community.

Facility Improvements

- Review and recommend facility and/or equipment improvements.
- Evaluate and recommend design, space, equipment, and layout of laboratories.

Instructor Guidance

- Facilitate opportunities for cooperative relationships with business and industry.
- Identify community or business resource people.
- Advise on occupational trends and new technologies to help guide instructor development.
- Identify qualifications and assist in the recruitment of instructors.

Structure

Committee Design

Balanced representation in an Advisory Committee is important to its success. The membership should reflect a cross section of business and industry served by the program. It is recommended that the following criteria be taken into consideration when deciding on the committee's composition:

- Employee/Employer Balance

A balance between employers and employees is desirable.

- Educators

As members of the institution, educators are critical in that they may be called to do more than other committee members. These members should expect to offer clear explanations from the College's perspectives of issues or challenges presented before the committee or to obtain additional information before the next meeting occurs. Also, educators may be asked to prepare reports, do research, or make special arrangements for facility and equipment utilization by the committee.

- Organized Labor

Should the career or technical area have an organized union, representation in the committee is recommended.

- Gender, Age, Minority, & Disability Status

There is considerable concern regarding gender, age minority, and disability status bias with respect to recruitment of new workers. It can be a great asset to include members who have a good grasp of these issues and who are sensitive to the concerns and viewpoints of special populations.

- Students

Former and current students can make a valuable contribution in light of their knowledge and experience in the program.

- Size/Type of Business Organization

Depending on the size and type of organization, individuals are hired in the same occupational area with different expectations. The committee should be cognizant of the differences and similarities between them.

Associations

- Some professions, businesses, or industries may have associations established to represent the viewpoints of its members. Representation in the committee is highly recommended.

Qualities to look for when selecting committee members

- Commitment
- Sincere interest
- Garnerers the respect and confidence of other community members
- Dedication to the occupation and community
- Knowledgeable about the field represented
- Good communication skills
- Respectful of the ideas of others
- Ability to work well with others

Size of Committee

The number of members will vary with the nature and size of the program. On one hand, a committee that is too small may result in limited perspective, inadequate information on career fields, and too little diversity. On the other, one that is too large may prove to be unmanageable. It is recommended that there be a minimum of six members and no more than 15 active representatives from business and industry.

Term of Appointment

Members are appointed to serve in an Advisory Committee for a two-year term beginning in August.

Meetings

Frequency of meetings may vary according to the needs of the program. In general, the committee holds at least two meetings each academic year. However, should the need arise, additional meetings may be called by the chair, department chair, or the division Dean.

Also, alternative methods of meeting may be considered, to include online and off-site meetings.

College Representatives

College representatives serve in an ex-officio capacity. The following individuals will be invited to all meetings:

- Campus President or designee
- Vice President of Academic Affairs
- Division Dean/Associate Deans for the program
- Assistant Director of Career and Workforce Development
- Program chair
- Program faculty members

Process of Appointment

Operation

The viability and effectiveness of an Advisory Committee is dependent upon the degree of support it is given not only at the initial stage of organization, but throughout its cycle. A committee's success can be ensured if a mechanism is put in place that facilitates involvement in the instructional program. Active involvement needs to be regular, systematic, and genuine.

General Functions & Guidelines

Overall, the functions of the committee and guidelines for planning and conducting meetings will be the same. The following tasks apply:

- An orientation for members is conducted
- Meetings (time, date, and place) are established
- Meeting agendas are developed and followed
- Records of the meetings are kept
- A notice of meetings is prepared and given to members
- Arrangements for successful meetings are completed (room reservation and setup, materials, refreshments, etc.)
- Minutes of meetings are prepared and distributed to members in a timely manner
- Meetings are conducted in a professional manner (informal but structured climate). Discussion of agenda topics is open and free, but parliamentary procedure is followed when official action is taken
- Space is designated in a file drawer for use by the Advisory Committee
- Communication between the Advisory Committee and the College is reciprocal and continuous
- The committee knows and follows the channels of communication
- Official communications are signed by the chairperson of the advisory committee

Member Orientation

With a newly organized or reorganized advisory committee, it is generally advisable to provide orientation. Typically, this may be done at the first meeting with the educator as chairperson. The following are recommended areas that may be included:

- The role and functions of the Advisory Committee
- Operational Guidelines
- Getting acquainted with other members
- Overview of the educational program
- Program curriculum
- Review of the department and/or program's plan of action
- Distribution of the Advisory Committee Handbook to each member

Meeting Agendas

The agenda is the plan for the meeting and lists the items to be discussed and considered. It also includes a time schedule for accomplishing tasks. Input for agenda items from the members encourages an inclusive process and ownership of agenda topics. The agenda is the responsibility of the chairperson who is encouraged to solicit agenda items at each meeting for the next meeting (Please refer to Appendix for Sample Agenda).

Meeting Minutes

The minutes are records of what occurs at a meeting. They should be brief, factual, and objective. They serve as a reminder of the subjects previously discussed and ensure that pending items or referred questions are not forgotten (Please see Appendix for a sample format). Minutes are significant for the following reasons:

- Agreement as to the action suggested or needed
- Substantiation of the meetings, accomplishments, and accountability
- A vehicle for communication with the committee

Pre-distribution of agendas and post-meeting distribution of minutes, prior to the next meeting are helpful for communication, involvement, and interest. These provide also an opportunity to address other items such as updated information and data, notices, and other matters of interest. A copy of the minutes are submitted to the appropriate Dean.

Advisory Committee Meetings

The initial meeting will be different in scope from subsequent meetings in that most of the time will be spent on orientation of members and the organization of the committee. The first meeting should be carefully planned as it is important to set the tone for future meetings and equally important, to firmly establish effective relationships from the start (Please refer to the Appendix for the First Meeting Agenda sample).

A well-planned, professionally conducted first meeting will set the stage for a productive second meeting. The second meeting may be the time to complete the “Plan of Work” that will guide the committee’s activities. This meeting may also provide educators the opportunity to transfer the leadership to committee members. Hence, the committee becomes operational at this point.

Meetings that follow would be for the purpose of completing the committee’s Plan of Work. The number of meetings decided by the committee is dependent upon the scope of work to accomplish. With a new committee, it is recommended that members begin with goals and objectives that will lead to a relative degree of success. For a re-organized committee, the goals and objectives may be continued from the previous year.

Committee Officers

Committee Officers

An Advisory Committee needs a leadership structure that is functional. A committee should have at minimum, a chairperson and a secretary. The chairperson in particular should possess leadership skills that enables him/her to lead the group in discussion and towards the accomplishment of committee goals and objectives, as well as involve all members. The secretary position can take the form of an “executive” secretary which could extend the role of the educator. The overall role and responsibilities of committee officers and college representatives are outlined below.

- Responsible for and develops the agenda
- Solicits input of members
- Encourages involvement of all members

Program chairs serve as the designated official representatives of the College for the Advisory Committee. They will take all necessary action in maintaining, planning, and holding meetings of the committee. Duties include:

- Provide support needed for the work of the committee to be carried out (record minutes, assure copies of the minutes, reports, recommendations, notices, and other materials are disseminated to members and other appropriate staff)
