Citizen-Centric Reports

The Citizen-Centric Reporting Initiative (CCR) is intended to foster innovative means of communication between governments and their citizenry. The CCR seeks to provide government financial information to its citizens in forms that are clear and understandable, updated regularly and often, delivered to all, easy to locate, honest in breadth and technically accurate in detail.

Clery Act Reports

The Jeanne Clery Disclosure of Campus Crime Statistics Act (Clery Act), signed in 1990, is a federal statute codified at 20 U.S.C. § 1992(f) with implementing regulations in the U.S. Code of Federal Regulations at 34 C.F.R. 668.46.

The Clery Act requires all colleges and universities that participate in federal financial aid programs to keep and disclose information about crime on and near their respective campuses.

The law is named after Jeanne Clery, a 19-year-old Lehigh University student whom was raped and murdered in her campus hall of residence in 1986.

Financial Audit Reports

In accordance with the Governmental Accounting Standards Board (GASB) Statement No. 35, Basic Financial Statements-and Management's Discussion and Analysis-for Public Colleges and Universities, establishes the financial statement presentation for the College and provides a comprehensive, entity-wide perspective of the College's assets, liabilities, net assets, revenues, expenses, changes in net assets, and cash flow.

Financial Information

The College is a special-purpose government engaged only in business-type activities. Accordingly, the College's financial statements have been presented during the economic resources measurement focus and the accrual basis of accounting. Under the accrual basis, revenues are recognized when earned, and expenses are recorded when obligation has been incurred.
