

Accreditation Basics Online Course

Accreditation Basics is an online course necessary to have a good understanding of the principles of accreditation and the four (4) Accreditation Standards.

The course offers a flexible, self-paced learning opportunity. You can register and complete the course at any time that suits your schedule. The course, if taken in full, requires an hour or more to complete; however, you may stop at any point and return to the course when your schedule permits.

You may access the online course at the link below:

<http://www.trainingway.com/accjc>

Please email your printed or scanned ACCJC Certificate of Completion for the Accreditation Basics course to the Office of Assessment, Institutional Effectiveness & Research (AIER) aier@guamcc.edu.

Timeframe for completion:
August 12, 2013 to December 31, 2014

Midterm Progress Report Due to ACCJC: March 2015

Accreditation Basics Online Course

Accreditation Basics is an online course necessary to have a good understanding of the principles of accreditation and the four (4) Accreditation Standards.

The course offers a flexible, self-paced learning opportunity. You can register and complete the course at any time that suits your schedule. The course, if taken in full, requires an hour or more to complete; however, you may stop at any point and return to the course when your schedule permits.

You may access the online course at the link below:

<http://www.trainingway.com/accjc>

Please email your printed or scanned ACCJC Certificate of Completion for the Accreditation Basics course to the Office of Assessment, Institutional Effectiveness & Research (AIER) aier@guamcc.edu.

Timeframe for completion:
August 12, 2013 to December 31, 2014

Midterm Progress Report Due to ACCJC: March 2015

Accreditation Basics Online Course

Accreditation Basics is an online course necessary to have a good understanding of the principles of accreditation and the four (4) Accreditation Standards.

The course offers a flexible, self-paced learning opportunity. You can register and complete the course at any time that suits your schedule. The course, if taken in full, requires an hour or more to complete; however, you may stop at any point and return to the course when your schedule permits.

You may access the online course at the link below:

<http://www.trainingway.com/accjc>

Please email your printed or scanned ACCJC Certificate of Completion for the Accreditation Basics course to the Office of Assessment, Institutional Effectiveness & Research (AIER) aier@guamcc.edu.

Timeframe for completion:
August 12, 2013 to December 31, 2014

Midterm Progress Report Due to ACCJC: March 2015

Accreditation Basics Online Course

Accreditation Basics is an online course necessary to have a good understanding of the principles of accreditation and the four (4) Accreditation Standards.

The course offers a flexible, self-paced learning opportunity. You can register and complete the course at any time that suits your schedule. The course, if taken in full, requires an hour or more to complete; however, you may stop at any point and return to the course when your schedule permits.

You may access the online course at the link below:

<http://www.trainingway.com/accjc>

Please email your printed or scanned ACCJC Certificate of Completion for the Accreditation Basics course to the Office of Assessment, Institutional Effectiveness & Research (AIER) aier@guamcc.edu.

Timeframe for completion:
August 12, 2013 to December 31, 2014

Midterm Progress Report Due to ACCJC: March 2015