

ARTICLE IV - FACULTY RIGHTS TO ACADEMIC FREEDOM

Recognizing that the free search for truth and its free exposition are essential to a democratic society, both the College and the Local will encourage and protect academic freedom as it applies to both teaching and research.

A faculty member is entitled to freedom in the classroom in discussing matters related to the curriculum of the course to include, but not limited to classroom student projects and projects in student organizations.

A faculty member may freely select the person(s) they wish to invite to campus as guest speaker(s) provided the presentation relates to the subject of their course.
This agreement also recognizes Board Policy 460 on Academic Freedom.
