

Event Planning Rubric

Excellent (4)	Strong (3)	Satisfactory (2)	Unsatisfactory (1)	Score identifies community oriented project that link to service learning activities.	understanding and identification with community oriented project that link to service learning activities.	Somewhat understands and identifies with community oriented project that link to service learning activities.	Shows little or no understanding and identification with community oriented project that link to service learning activities.	4
steps necessary to proceed with group semester project. Develops a highly detailed plan that considers facilities, budgets, and the necessary resources to meet the goals of the event or	necessary to proceed with group semester project. Develops an adequate plan that considers facilities, budgets, and the necessary resources to meet the goals	steps necessary to proceed with group semester project. Outlines plans that consider facilities, budgets, and the necessary resources to meet the goals of the event or activity.	the steps necessary to Proceed with group semester project. Fails to develop a plan that considers facilities, budgets, and the necessary resources to meet the goals of the event or activity.	4
Demonstrates high degree of effectiveness in allocating resources in accordance with event planning document.	considerable effectiveness in allocating resources in accordance with event	Demonstrates with some effectiveness in allocating resources in accordance with event planning document.	Demonstrates with limited effectiveness in allocation of resources in accordance with event planning document.	4
commitment and willingness to take on a leadership role	degree of commitment and willingness to take on a	Assumes or asserts leadership role within the project's main or subcommittees.	Does not assume any leadership role within the project's main or subcommittees.	4
Regularly and accurately modifies the event plan in anticipation of problems. Makes exceptional use of time, money, people, resources, and facilities within the schedule.	Occasionally modifies the even plan in anticipation of problems. Makes effective use of time, money, people, resources and facilities.	Provides input that assists in developing contingency plans to the event plan in anticipation of problems. Utilizes time, money, people, resources and facilities.	Shows little or no evidence of modification to the event plan in anticipation of problems. Makes ineffective use of time, money, people, resources and facilities.	4
Actively participates in event planning activities and implementation of event. Provides considerable contributions to development of After Action Report. Submits individual reaction paper that succinctly summarizes the direct service	Demonstrates considerable degree of participation event planning activities and implementation of event. Contributes to development of After Action Report. Submits individual reaction paper that reflects on the direct	Occasionally participates in event planning activities and implementation of event. Provides comments for After Action Report. Submits individual reaction paper that describes the direct service learning experience.	Rarely participates in event planning activities and implementation of event. Does not participate in development of After Action Report. Does not submit individual reaction paper.	4
	Clearly understands and identifies community oriented project that link to service learning activities. Thoroughly identifies the steps necessary to proceed with group semester project. Develops a highly detailed plan that considers facilities, budgets, and the necessary resources to meet the goals of the event or activity. Demonstrates high degree of effectiveness in allocating resources in accordance with event planning document. Demonstrates high degree of commitment and willingness to take on a leadership role within the project's main or subcommittees. Regularly and accurately modifies the event plan in anticipation of problems. Makes exceptional use of time, money, people, resources, and facilities within the schedule. Actively participates in event planning activities and implementation of event. Provides considerable contributions to development of After Action Report. Submits individual reaction paper that succinctly summarizes	Clearly understands and identifies community oriented project that link to service learning activities. Thoroughly identifies the steps necessary to proceed with group semester project. Develops a highly detailed plan that considers facilities, budgets, and the necessary resources to meet the goals of the event or activity. Demonstrates high degree of effectiveness in allocating resources in accordance with event planning document. Demonstrates high degree of commitment and willingness to take on a leadership role within the project's main or subcommittees. Regularly and accurately modifies the event plan in anticipation of problems. Makes exceptional use of time, money, people, resources, and facilities within the schedule. Actively participates in event. Actively participates in event planning activities and implementation of event. Actively participates in event planning activities and implementation of event. Actively participates in event planning activities and implementation of event. Submits individual reaction paper that succinctly summarizes the direct service Demonstrates some understanding and identification with community oriented project that link to service learning activities. Identifies key steps necessary to proceed with group semester project. Develops an adequate plan that considers facilities, budgets, and the necessary resources to meet the goals of the event or activity. Demonstrates with considers facilities, budgets, and the necessary resources in accordance with event planning document. Demonstrates with considers facilities, budgets, and the necessary resources to meet the goals of the event or activity. Demonstrates with considers facilities, budgets, and the necessary resources in accordance with event planning document. Demonstrates with considers facilities, budgets, and the necessary resources in accordance with event planning document. Demonstrates with considers facilities, budgets, and the necessary resources to meet the goals of the event or activity. Demo	Clearly understands and identifies community oriented project that link to service learning activities. Thoroughly identifies the steps necessary to proceed with group semester project. Develops a highly detailed plan that considers facilities, budgets, and the necessary resources to meet the goals of the event or activity. Demonstrates high degree of effectiveness in allocating resources in accordance with event planning document. Demonstrates high degree of commitment and willingness to take on a leadership role within the project's main or subcommittees. Regularly and accurately modifies the event planning activities within the schedule. Actively participates in event lanning activities and implementation of event. Actively participates in event planning activities and implementation of event. Submits individual reaction paper that succinctly summarizes the direct service in the direct service its arction paper that succinctly summarizes the direct service its arction paper that succinctly summarizes the direct service its menders and identification with community oriented project that link to service learning and identification with community oriented project that link to service learning activities. Identifies key steps necessary to proceed with group service learning activities. Identifies key steps necessary to proceed with group service learning activities. Identifies key steps necessary to proceed with group service learning activities. Identifies key steps necessary to proceed with group semester project. Develops an adequate plan that considers facilities, budgets, and the necessary resources to meet the goals of the event or activity. Demonstrates with considers facilities, budgets, and the necessary resources in accordance with event planning document. Demonstrates high degree of pomostrates considerable effectiveness in allocating resources in accordance with event planning document. Demonstrates high degree of pomostrates considerable degree of pomostrates of the event or activity	Clearly understands and identifies community oriented project that link to service learning activities. Thoroughly identifies the steps necessary to proceed with group semester project. Develops a highly detailed plan that considers facilities, budgets, and the necessary to proceed with group semester project. Develops an adequate plan that considers facilities, budgets, and the necessary to group semester project. Develops an adequate plan that considers facilities, budgets, and the necessary resources to meet the goals of the event or activity. Demonstrates high degree of perfectiveness in allocating resources in accordance with event planning document. Demonstrates high degree of commitment and willingness to take on a leadership role within the project's main or subcommittees. Regularly and accurately modifies the event plan in anticipation of problems. Makes exceptional use of time, money, people, resources and facilities within the schedule. Actively participates in event planning alonging activities and implementation of event. Actively participates in event planning alonging activities and implementation of event. Submits individual reaction paper that succinctly summarizes the direct service learning activities and indentification with community oriented project that link to service learning activities and indentification with community oriented project that link to service learning activities. It link to service learning activities. It link to service learning activities and indentification with community oriented project that link to service learning activities and indentification with community oriented project that link to service learning activities and indentification with community oriented project that link to service learning activities. It link to service learning activities and indentification with community oriented project that link to service learning activities and indentification with community oriented project that link to service learning activities and indentification with

Students must pass with at least an average of 2 on the above rubrics scale.

Average Score:_