

Project One Rubric

CO 110 – Ventura

Survey and Assess a Regional Issue and its History of Civic Engagement

Points Available	Project Task	Points Earned	Comments
10	The student clearly expresses their rationale for choosing the topic, explaining their personal interest and why it is significant to them.
10	It is clear to the audience who this issue impacts both directly and indirectly.
15	The student has presented pivotal moments in the issue's history within our region.
15	The student has explored claims made by advocacy workers on the issue. The claims are correctly categorized using class vocabulary and key words.
10	An overview of the issue's current state is presented fully and made clear to the audience.
10	The student looks forward and indicates where they would like to see the issue progress.
10	The slides make use of compelling images and design. There is evidence of time and effort put toward creating an engaging visual tool.
10	The student is prepared to share their presentation and shows evidence of preparation, maturity, and makes a good use of the time allotted.
10	The student submitted their slides in a timely manner.
Total: 100		Total:

Student Name (s):

