Subject: 3M Announcement from Wes Gima

Date: Nov 14, 2013 1:13:42 PM

3M representative, Jessica Duenas, informed me today that 3M will no longer be selling multimedia projectors of any kind. She did not know the reason for this abrupt decision. She said that they are still selling bulbs and related materials but I assume that once they're gone, that's it.

We are still looking into the support issues that involve our current batch of projectors and I hope we can come up with some sort of favorable solution.
