14. What aspects of this Orientation did you find MOST helpful?

- Having the papers to read along
- Information & flyers
- Library, Computer Lab and free tutoring
- Financial Aid, TRiO program, COPSA, HoSTS, CSI
- Being offered prizes
- Information of student organizations
- Everything was helpful of giving the information that freshmen students have to know
- Most interesting was the Supervisory & Management organization
- There were a number of engaging speakers that presented helpful information.

- Student Support Services was very informative as to where we can obtain information and to assist with classes
- The presenters made sure that students understand what each section of programs at GCC are all about
- All presenters were very clear
- The papers and flyers that were handed out
- Project AIM seems like a very helpful program
- Most helpful thing is Troy Lizama's speech. I will keep his speech 'following your heart and your dream'
- Make use of on-line registration
- What I found most helpful will be CSI & HOSTS
- Times available and contact numbers
- This is the first time I have been to a meeting on Guam that started on time...thank you!
- Student Support Services
- It helped me a lot
- All info provided was very helpful
- It's informativeness
- All were good info
- Intro to the college community and leaders
- The student support service and counseling
- The snacks
- Information from counselors and officers to how they can help us.
- Where everything is located, where to get info, what COPSA is. Very helpful
- Places I could learn more info
- Project AIM
- Information from most of the department pertaining to student
- The tour
- Speakers are awesome especially the historian.
- They were all helpful
- Admissions and Reg.
- All the presentations were good
- Everything was helpful. It made me gain more knowledge about GCC.
- I found out about the ASVAB testing here at GCC.
- All information was well explained.
- Where you get your student ID
- The COPSA presentation by its officers was very informative with regards to directory assistance for students.
- The members of CSI and COPSA enthusiasm to tell you more of the college and activities.
- Accommodative Services and safety rules. Financial aid, Project AIM
- Learning Resource Center, Counseling and Assessment

15. What aspects of this Orientation did you find LEAST helpful?

- None, everything was helpful
- Accommodative Services
- Some people saying they are nervous
- Administration
- Nothing
- Actually, I think I got everything I needed
- Most of the speakers were clear and quick
- CSI, SMILE
- Accommodative
- Orientation was great
- It was all great information
- Construction news
- Some didn't really explain where they were located
- The food
- Too much information but the handout made it good
- Library
- Everything was pretty much helpful and useful.
- The placement test deadlines
- Admissions and Registration- was not as clear on exactly where to go for certain services and what those services were exactly

16. To better serve our GCC students, what suggestions do you have for improving the Orientation program for future semesters?

- Expand on Student Financial Aid options
- Be confident, be prepared
- Activities
- More prizes, better execution, presenter knew what they wanted to say but some couldn't say what they wanted to say
- It was short, straight to the point & very helpful
- It should stay the same, it was interesting
- Everything is good. I like the fast pace
- Healthier choice than drinks, maybe fruit
- None- great experience
- The Orientation program was very entertaining and had a lot of useful information, just keep it that way.
- Was great, have coffee for the morning session
- It was great no need for improvement
- Have the management team sit up front instead of behind us
- The fact that each presentation was supposed to be 3 minutes, however it shows the passion of the job when they were there longer than they were supposed to be up there.
- I suggest to keep doing what you're doing, great orientation.
- Transfer students. It would be nice to hear more about transfers, credits etc. I still don't know who to go to
- Set up booths w/the different organizations

- Moving our courses
- NO sandwiches....only empanada
- Ideas
- Better seating
- Keep up the good work
- No suggestions
- More involvement
- Ms. Lonsdale should take more time or be specific on financial aid information (i.e. when they cut checks, disburse and how much a student may receive).
- Music and dancing, more prizes
- They were all helpful no improvement at this orientation at this time.
- Don't have too many speakers. It got boring after the third one.
- Possibly making the campus tour before the orientation so when presenters mention where they are located we have a better idea.
- Not have the air conditioner so high and coffee
- Have student organization applications on site at orientation.
- Have helpful program(s) applications at orientation so it's easier for students to obtain and ask for further assistance of needed.
- It was great. I don't see anything needed to be changed
- I think the orientation is already good.
- Just want to know everything about GCC
- Ice breakers to keep group up and alert.
- Do not make students who need extra papers filled out to wait in an even longer line at the student health center.
- Still getting to know the programs.
- Visual aids for presentations
