ASSESSMENT & COUNSELING DEPARTMENT

The Assessment & Counseling Department supports the mission of the Guam Community College by providing a wide range of services to promote student academic, career, and personal growth. Counseling services are designed to assist students in addressing the challenges that they encounter during their campus years and to promote greater overall wellness within the diverse student population. The GCC counselors are trained professionals who focus on the developmental, remedial, and preventive needs of the GCC school community and its partners to maximize the potential of our students.
